Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: RECOMMENDATION LETTER

I am writing to recommend Natisha Holness. As President of the Seventh-day Adventist Conference in Woodlands Conference in Lusaka, Zambia, and being Natisha's supervisor during the Community Outreach program, I had the pleasure of observing her professional work ethic during our Community Outreach activities from July 16 to July 27, 2024, in my territory.

Natisha demonstrated exceptional leadership skills, delivering well-organized and informative public speaking presentations that educated over 600 individuals, including children, women, and men, in our community. Her dedication to transforming lives and going an extra mile to provide assistance to those in need and making positive impact on their family lives, is truly remarkable,

I am confident that she will bring the same passion and commitment to your community. Natisha is an outstanding educator with a strong passion for teaching and a commitment to creating a supportive learning environment. Her experience and qualifications make her an ideal candidate for this role.

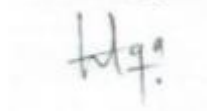

She possesses excellent communication skills, patience, and a unique ability to adapt to diverse environments and learning styles. Her ability to balance empathy and understanding is truly inspiring.

I strongly recommend Natisha Holness for this position and am confident that she will excel fostering exceptional, life-changing growth in others.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any additional information.

Sincerely yours,
