RE: Reference for Natisha Holness

It is with great pleasure that I write this reference for Natisha Holness. I have known her for more than three years and find her to be a very sincere person. Natisha has spoken on our church zoom platform a number of times, and her contributions have always been a source of inspiration and encouragement to our congregation. Through our interactions, I have found her to be a deeply committed Christian, demonstrating a genuine passion for ministry and a keen desire to share the love and message of Christ.

Natisha's heart for people is evident in the way she encourages and uplifts others. Whether through her words from the pulpit or her personal interactions, she consistently brings a message of hope, strength, and faith. Her enthusiasm for ministry is contagious, and she is always eager to serve and lead others closer to God. I am always encouraged by her commitment to lead various mission trips abroad. This immense gesture is not only to lead others to Christ but to offer support and make the lives of others better.

I have no doubt that Natisha will continue to be a blessing wherever she is called to minister. She is a reliable and dedicated individual, and I wholeheartedly recommend her for any ministry opportunity she may pursue.

Sincerely,
